Item 8.01 Other Events

In November 2005, Saul Centers, Inc. (the "Company") acquired two shopping center properties. The initial purchase price of each of these acquisitions individually, as provided below, did not exceed 10% of the Company's total assets as of December 31, 2004, but the aggregate purchase price for both properties, along with the purchase price of a property purchased in March 2005, did exceed such amount. A Form 8-K was not filed for the March 2005 acquisition as the purchase price did not exceed 5% of the Company's total assets as of December 31, 2004.

On November 17, 2005, the Company acquired Jamestown Place, a 96,400 square foot neighborhood shopping center, located in Altamonte Springs, Florida. The center, constructed in 1986, was approximately 96% leased at the date of acquisition and is anchored by a 55,000 square foot Publix supermarket. The property was acquired for $14.8 million. The Company has no material renovation, improvement or development plans for this property.

On November 30, 2005, the Company acquired Seabreeze Plaza, a 146,700 square foot neighborhood shopping center, in Palm Harbor, Florida. The center, constructed in 1985 and renovated in 2003 was 100% leased at the date of acquisition and is anchored by a 45,000 square foot Publix supermarket. The center was acquired for a purchase price of $25.9 million, subject to the assumption of a $13.6 million mortgage note with an interest rate of 5.28%. The Company has no material renovation, improvement or development plans for this property.

The acquisitions were made pursuant to separate acquisition agreements, the sellers of which were unrelated to the Company or each other. The purchase price of each property was funded from the Company's line of credit and cash on hand. In acquiring both properties, the Company evaluated the following factors:

- the location and accessibility of the properties;
- the geographic area and demographic characteristics of the surrounding communities, as well as the local real estate markets, including potential for growth and potential regulatory impediments to development;
- the size of the properties;
- the purchase prices;
- the non-financial terms of the acquisitions;
- the availability of funds or other consideration for the acquisitions and the costs thereof;
- the "fit" of the properties with the Company's existing portfolio;
- the potential for any environmental problems;
- the current and historical occupancy rates of the properties as well as comparable and competing properties in the same market;
- the quality of construction and design and the current physical condition of the properties;
- the financial and other characteristics (including market share) of the anchor tenants and the terms of existing anchor leases; and
- the potential for capital appreciation.

The Company is not aware of any material factors relating to the properties other than those discussed above that would cause the financial information included in Item 9.01 below not to be necessarily indicative of future operating results.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Board of Directors
Saul Centers, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying Historical Statement of Revenues in Excess of Certain Operating Expenses (“Historical Statement”) of Jamestown Place (the “Property”) for the year ended December 31, 2004. This Historical Statement is the responsibility of the management of Saul Centers, Inc. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Historical Statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Historical Statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the Historical Statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Historical Statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying Historical Statement was prepared for the purpose of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (for inclusion in Form 8-K for Saul Centers, Inc.) as described in Note 2. This presentation is not intended to be a complete presentation of the Property’s revenues and expenses.

In our opinion, the Historical Statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenues and certain operating expenses described in Note 2 of the Property for the year ended December 31, 2004, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Historical Statement of Revenues in Excess of Certain Operating Expenses

Period from January 1, 2005 through September 30, 2005 (unaudited) and the year ended December 31, 2004

1. Description of real property acquired

On November 17, 2005, Saul Centers, Inc. (the "Company") acquired Jamestown Place (the "Property"), a 96,400 square foot neighborhood shopping center, located in Altamonte Springs, Florida for a purchase price of $14.8 million from Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada. The center, constructed in 1986, was approximately 96% leased at the date of acquisition. The center is anchored by a 55,000 square foot Publix supermarket. The Company has no material renovation, improvement or development plans for this property. The Company is organized as a real estate investment trust and engages in ownership operation, management, leasing, acquisition, renovation, expansion, development and financing of community and neighborhood shopping centers and office properties primarily in the Washington, D.C./Baltimore metropolitan area.

2. Basis of accounting

The accompanying Historical Statement of Revenues in Excess of Certain Operating Expenses is presented in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) for the real estate acquired. Accordingly, the Historical Statement excludes certain historical expenses that are not comparable to the proposed future operations of the Property such as amortization, depreciation and corporate expenses. Therefore, the Historical Statement, as presented by the Company, will not be comparable to the Property's statement of operations as presented by Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada.

3. Significant accounting policies

Revenue recognition

Rental revenue is recognized on a straight-line basis over the terms of the related leases. The excess of recognized rental income over amounts due pursuant to lease terms is recorded as straight-line rent receivable. The impact of the straight-line adjustment increased revenue by approximately $3,700 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Use of estimates

Management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the periods presented in order to prepare this Historical Statement of Revenues in Excess of Certain Operating Expenses in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Unaudited interim Historical Statement

The Historical Statement of Revenues in Excess of Certain Operating Expenses for the period from January 1, 2005 through September 30, 2005 is unaudited. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring accruals, necessary for a fair presentation of the Historical Statement of Revenues in Excess of Certain Operating Expenses for the interim period have been included. The results of operations for the interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year of the Property.

Property management fees

The Property was managed by Lincoln Realty Services pursuant to the terms of the management agreement. Property management fees were calculated at 4% of gross revenue collected.

Jamestown Place

Notes to Historical Statement of Revenues in Excess of Certain Operating Expenses

Period from January 1, 2005 through September 30, 2005 (unaudited) and the year ended December 31, 2004

4. Description of leasing arrangements

The retail space in the Property is leased to tenants under leases with terms that vary in length and conditions. Most leases contain operating expense and real estate tax recovery clauses and certain leases contain renewal options. All interests in all lease agreements were assigned to the Company upon its acquisition of the property.

Future minimum gross rental commitments for the years ended December 31 are as follows:

2005	$1,100,000
2006	970,000
2007	396,000

Period from January 1, 2005 through September 30, 2005 (unaudited) and the year ended December 31, 2004

1. Description of real property acquired

On November 30, 2005, Saul Centers, Inc. (the "Company") acquired Seabreeze Plaza (the "Property"), a 146,700 square foot neighborhood shopping center, in Palm Harbor, Florida from Seabreeze Associates, L.P. The center, constructed in 1985 and renovated in 2003, was 100% leased at the date of acquisition and is anchored by a 45,000 square foot Publix supermarket. The center was acquired for a purchase price of $25.9 million, subject to the assumption of a $13.6 million mortgage note with an interest rate of 5.28%. The Company has no material renovation, improvement or development plans for this property. The Company is organized as a real estate investment trust and engages in ownership operation, management, leasing, acquisition, renovation, expansion, development and financing of community and neighborhood shopping centers and office properties primarily in the Washington, D.C./Baltimore metropolitan area.

2. Basis of accounting

The accompanying Historical Statement of Revenues in Excess of Certain Expenses is presented in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) for the real estate acquired. Accordingly, the Historical Statement excludes certain historical expenses that are not comparable to the proposed future operations of the Property such as amortization, depreciation and corporate expenses. Therefore, the Historical Statement, as presented by the Company, will not be comparable to the Property's statement of operations as presented by Seabreeze Associates, L.P.

3. Significant accounting policies

Revenue recognition

Rental revenue is recognized on a straight-line basis over the terms of the related leases. The excess of recognized rental income over amounts due pursuant to lease terms is recorded as straight-line rent receivable. Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet and
Condensed Consolidated Statement of Operations

The pro forma balance sheet as of December 31, 2004 presents consolidated information as if the acquisitions had taken place on December 31, 2004. The pro forma statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2004 and for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 present pro forma results of operations as if the acquisitions had taken place as of the beginning of the reporting periods.

The Company purchased Jamestown Place on November 17, 2005 and the Seabreeze Plaza on November 30, 2005.

The unaudited consolidated pro forma financial information is not necessarily indicative of what the Company's actual results of operations or financial position would have been had these transactions been consummated on the dates indicated, nor does it purport to represent the Company's results of operations or financial position for any future period. The pro forma results of operations for the periods ended December 31, 2004 and September 30, 2005 are not necessarily indicative of the actual operating results for those periods.

The unaudited consolidated pro forma financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 and the Historical Statements of Revenues In Excess of Certain Operating Expenses and Notes included elsewhere in this Form 8-K. In management's opinion, all adjustments necessary to reflect these transactions have been made.
